Last Meeting - 24 February 2020

Joan and I celebrated our 58th Wedding Anniversary with some of the club members at the Secret Spot last Monday, a glorious setting.

Keith gave us a run down on the history, short as it might be, of the development of the amazing service created there.

Denis gave a reply and thanked Keith.

Russell B talked of us partnering up with Parksyde to restore the gardens there.

Then we ate our bag of lunch provided by the Golf Club and it was enjoyed by all. Getting whatever for a drink was also a doddle and a great afternoon with all the personal tours of the premises passed the afternoon away. A great spot to relax and enjoy the surroundings and a dip if you want.

Political Pearls

“People have said a lot of unpleasant things about the Foreign Office, but no one has ever accused them of patriotism”

“It is our job to tell select committees the truth and nothing but the truth, but it would be profoundly inappropriate and grossly irresponsible to tell them the whole truth”

Sir Humphrey Appleby K.C.B Secretary to Cabinet

WHAT IS ROTARY?

Rotary offers a code of ethics, though it is non-denominational

Rotary is a benevolent fellowship, but is not a fraternity

Rotary is a way of life but not a religion

Rotary offers a platform to share ideas and better forms of business not simply a service club

Rotary is an opportunity to share, not a restricted group

Robert Lee Ellis

PDG, Houston, Texas

However

Rotary is what you make it but to gain all the benefits that Rotary can provide you have to become involved.

Become a Rotarian rather than simply a member of the Rotary Club

March is Water & Sanitation Month
