

The week that was....

"I am so clever that sometimes I don't understand what I am saying."

Oscar Wilde

"Some cause happiness wherever they go, others, whenever they go"

Oscar Wilde

What a very special presentation from Chantelle Cobby. After awarding the Harold Homes Scholarship to Ezra Berry last week it was nice to welcome Chantelle, a former recipient of that award, and hearing how the funds she received had helped her in purchasing textbooks for her degree in a Bachelor of Communication. Chantelle was also very active in many of our Clubs events such as the speech contest, the young leaders and I am sure many more.

Chantelle is clearly a young woman focused on giving of herself to help the local and international communities. Including establishing micro volunteering collective, organizing the Soul Lounge, a virtual conference on communication and inspiration and I am sure many others. She is now working as the Fund Raising and Marketing Manager for Shelterbox NZ. We all wish her well as she starts another degree about leading change and in her journey in life. I am sure we will all hear more about her.

And on the subject of Shelterbox. Following a presentation on this from Shelterbox's Stephen Dorrington last year our club committed to raise some funds to go towards one of these boxes. I am not sure what the final amount raised was but we are well over the purchase price of one and well on track for a second.

Kia kaha.
