Last Meeting – 16 September

Welcome – Russell Dale

Russell welcomed members and as Doug Clemens was overseas gave the quote on his behalf. In this year of the World Cup it was:

“Rugby is a game for big buggers, if you aren’t a big bugger you get hurt. I wasn’t a big bugger, but I was a fast bugger therefore avoiding the big buggers”
Spike Milligan

Russell welcomed Barry Lane home and congratulated Andrew and Rachel on the birth of their son, commenting it’s a while since Rotarians have had that privilege. Pres Tom presented Andrew with some booties

Guest Speaker – Te Rangikakeke Kiripatea

Bryce introduced Te Rangi who spoke of the philosophy of Kai Rotorua, the local food network that doesn’t act as a foodbank etc but rather as a promoter of “growing your own” an endeavour which has faded somewhat over the last few years.

Te Rangi spoke of the kumara proverb backing their campaign “The kumara never speaks of its own sweetness”

Their next exciting venture is to develop a living building and they have engaged Auckland University architectural students to draw some blank canvas plans.

Kierin thanked Te Rangi

Club Speaker – Mark Gould

Mark spoke of the Summer Science school to be held over 1 week in Auckland. Our club is to sponsor a student from Girls High on the basis of a 3-way split of the $1800 fee between the student, the school and the club, with a suggestion that members may want to contribute personally to the club fee.

Political Pearls

“A good political speech is not one in which you can prove that the man is telling the truth, it is one where no one else can prove he is lying”

“Once you specify in advance what a government project is going to cost, what it is supposed to achieve, and whose job it is to see that it does, the entire system of Civil Service administration collapses and you are in the whole squalid world of professional management”

Sir Humphrey Appleby K.C.B (Secretary of the Cabinet)
