Who Said What

Three quotes and three writers see if you can match them correctly. The quotes are numbered, and the authors lettered for your convenience.

1. "If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything"
2. "Trust yourself you know more than you think you do"
3. "Whoever is careless with the truth in small matters cannot be trusted with important ones"
- 4.

A: Albert Einstein B: Dr Benjamin Spock C: Mark Twain

Some more thoughts from Frank Devlin RI President 2000-01

"The fact is, when Rotary started in 1905, the original intent was for people from different businesses and professions to network together.

It soon became a group of people who shared the same commitment to high ethics and trustworthiness, and to be given the chance of helping one another, and even total strangers.

Rotary is not a reciprocal trading club, and members do not expect business from other members with profit as the motive, however many of the best Rotarians in the organisations history first joined Rotary because they thought it would help their business".

JANUARY IS

VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH

"Vocational service gives Rotarians the opportunity to help others escape poverty and gain a measure of self-respect. As business and professional leaders, we have a duty to lead and encourage good ethics through vocation."
